

Below are listed our rental terms and conditions, these are standard throughout the industry.

Terms and Conditions

The above-signed recognizes that the terms and conditions of renting the equipment are as follows:
All equipment issued is understood to be in good condition and is to be returned the same.

All equipment issued is coded or labeled and the same equipment is to be returned with the same codes or labels.

In the event of the equipment being damaged, the customer recognizes that he is to pay the repair bill or the estimation of the cost of the repair.

A whole day is to be paid for any equipment taken before 14h00 (2pm) and from any equipment being returned after 10h00 (10am). The price to be paid is calculated from when the equipment is taken possession of up to the day it is returned.

Each day is owed at the prices indicated in the shop.

Identification may be requested before equipment is issued.

Liability

Except in the case of fraud, the customer benefits from the following measures:

The customer is not covered for any damage done to the articles rented and will engage personally to cover any costs incurred, unless he/she has subscribed to a theft/loss guarantee.

Theft/loss guarantee

The customer may subscribe to a theft/loss guarantee, payable in advance when he collects the equipment, and is charged according to the terms advertised in the shop. The company then abandons any recourse he may have for the repair or replacement of the equipment in their entirety after an excess equal to the cost of a seven-day rental period of an identical article is paid. The payment of this excess is over and above the cost of the payment for the period of rental of equipment.

To evoke use of the theft/loss guarantee

In the case of theft, the customer is to supply the shop with the original complaint for theft from the police station.

In the case of breakage, the customer must return the broken equipment to the shop.

Loss, theft, breakage

If not covered by the guarantee, the customer will be charged for the equipment based on the TTC sale price of the article, deducting a depreciation of 15% per year.

The theft/breakage or loss of a pole will be charged at 15€

Jurisdiction

Any resulting legal proceedings will fall into the jurisdiction of the Tribunaux D'Instance, de Grandes Instances, or the Tribunal of Commerce de la conscription judiciaire d'Albertville (Savoie).
